

IV Release 1.0 Migration Summary Matrix

This matrix provides a summary of what is being migrated from IMb Tracing® and PostalOne!® to Informed Visibility® (IV®) and where the migrated information will appear in IV. For detailed information with screenshots from all of the systems, see the IV Release 1.0 Detailed Migration Walkthrough on the IV RIBBS® page.

Item	IMb Tracing	PostalOne!	Informed Visibility Location
Subscriptions Note: Migrated subscriptions will be activated on the date you select.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">All active subscriptions from IMb Scan Delivery Notification Schedule migrated to IV with existing settingsMigrated IMb Tracing subscriptions separated in IV into one subscription for bundles and one for piecesLogical handling events are automatically included in migrated piece and bundle subscriptions in IV (Note: Logical handling events will be available for pieces in Release 1.0 and for bundles in a later release.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">All active Container Visibility push subscriptions (ContainerVisibilityNotification or ContainerVisibilityDelivery) migrated to IV with existing settingsMigrated Container Visibility push subscriptions that received data for both containers and handling units (trays) are separated into one subscription for containers and one for handling units in IVMigrated Container Visibility push subscriptions are updated in IV to include any Delegating MID's that had been delegated to the subscription owner CRID's MID's through MID Data Distribution ProfilesLogical handling events are automatically included in migrated container and handling unit subscriptions in IV (Note: Logical handling events will be available for containers and handling units in a later release.)Note: Start-the-Clock Visibility push subscriptions will be migrated to IV in a later release	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Migrated subscriptions display under Queries & Feeds > Create & Manage Data Feeds > Your Feeds
Address Book	<ul style="list-style-type: none">All FTP servers in subscriptions migrated to IV address bookAll FTP servers in Scan Delivery Host Setup list migrated to IV address bookAll notification contacts in subscriptions migrated to IV address bookAll contacts in Create/Edit Subscriber Contact list migrated to IV address book	<ul style="list-style-type: none">All web service URLs and information in subscriptions migrated to IV address book	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Migrated FTP servers and web service URLs display under Address Book > Server > Your ServersMigrated contacts display under Address Book > People > Contacts
Data Delegation Rules	<ul style="list-style-type: none">For each MID that is part of an active subscription but does not belong to the IMb Tracing subscription owner CRID, data delegation rules created in IV to provide visibility from that MID to the subscription owner CRID (with the Delegating CRID maintaining ownership of the IV data delegation rule)For delegation rules based on an IMb Tracing subscription, IV has one rule providing piece visibility and another providing bundle visibilityIV data delegation rules based on IMb Tracing subscriptions will allow visibility of all available data attributes and handling event types for the given mail object type	<ul style="list-style-type: none">For each Full-Service Start the Clock/Container Visibility Data Distribution Profile in the MID system, data delegation rule created in IV to provide container visibility from the Delegating MID to the Receiving MID (with the Delegating CRID maintaining ownership of the IV data delegation rule)For each Tray Visibility Data Distribution Profile in the MID system, data delegation rule created in IV to provide handling unit visibility from the Delegating MID to the Receiving MID (with the Delegating CRID maintaining ownership of the IV data delegation rule)IV data delegation rules based on MID Data Distribution Profiles will allow visibility of all available data attributes and handling event types for the given mail object type	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Data delegation rules that provide visibility to your CRID/MID display under Manage Data Delegation > Data Delegated to My CRIDData delegation rules that provide visibility from your CRID/MID to another CRID/MID display under Manage Data Delegation > Manage Data Delegation > Data Delegation Authorization HistoryData delegation rules created during the migration have "IV MT migration process" as the RequestorCRIDs and MID's delegated to your CRID or MID are available for selection on Select Entity(s) screen when creating a one-time query or data feed
Reply Mail Routing Code Mappings	<ul style="list-style-type: none">For each Reply Mail routing code that is part of an active subscription, mapping created in IV from that routing code to the IMb Tracing subscription owner CRID	<ul style="list-style-type: none">N/A	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Mapped routing codes displayed if Include Origin Scans selected on the Select Entity(s) screen when creating a one-time query or data feed